

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if it shall become necessary in widening or straightening said alley, to destroy or remove, or take a part of any house or building, or lot of ground, and the owner thereof shall claim to be compensated for the whole of the said house, or building, or lot of ground, the Mayor and City Council aforesaid, shall provide for the full valuation thereof, to be ascertained in the same manner as if the whole house, or building, or lot of ground were necessary to be destroyed, removed, or taken, with the same right of appeal as on other valuation, and the amount of such full valuation when finally decided on, shall be paid or tendered to the owner of such house, or building, or lot of ground, or deposited with the Register of the City for the use of such owner, before any part thereof shall be destroyed, or removed, or taken, and the Mayor and City Council shall provide for the sale or other disposition of the materials of such house, or building, or of such lot of ground, and for applying the proceeds thereof in payment of the damages and expenses incurred by opening and widening said alley, including a compensation to the Register of the City, for the services required to be performed by him:

CHAP. 186.

Directions in case of claiming the whole value

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall be of no force or effect, unless it be approved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, at its present or next annual session, and before the said Mayor and City Council shall pass any ordinance or resolution to approve or disapprove of the provisions of this act, they first cause the substance and object thereof, to be published in all the daily papers of the city of Baltimore for one week, and notifying all persons interested to make known their objections, if any they have; the expense of the said publications to be [] by the party or parties who may petition the said Mayor and City Council for their approval of this act.

Approval required

CHAPTER 186.

An act to alter and amend the lines dividing the Fifth and Sixth Election Districts, in Anne Arundel County. Passed Mar. 12, 1835

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly, that much inconvenience is experienced by the voters of Anne Arundel county, residing in the fifth election district, in consequence of the remoteness of the place of

Preamble